City Directory

Spanish mission train depot constructed in 1923 now serves as the City Hall, Chamber of Commerce and the Community College.

This section provides a directory of City elected officials and staff.

Emergency Number: 911 Mayor: Kevin J. Phillips

The Rose of the Silver State

Caliente, Nevada located on U.S. Highway 93, is known for its state parks and outdoor attractions such as hunting, fishing, camping and ghost town explorations. The area also has a rich western heritage. The city's focus point is the mission style railroad depot, constructed in 1923. Today the depot houses city offices, the library, an art gallery and classrooms for the community college.

You won't want to miss Caliente's sheer canyon cliffs and lush greenery. This was one of the favorite writing spots for western novelist Zane Grey. It was also where the famed "Robbers Roost", hideout for outlaws like Butch Cassidy, is located.
